Kuipers to Celebrate Reading Month by Visiting Local Schools

(LANSING) – In recognition of March as Reading Month, state Senator Wayne Kuipers will share his enthusiasm for reading by visiting six elementary schools across the 25th Senate District.

“Books open an entirely new world to children, and by visiting local schools I want to emphasize the enjoyment as well as the educational benefits of reading,” Kuipers, chair of the Senate Education Committee, said. “The ability to read and learn often means the difference between making it or not in our society. I want to help our youths make it.”

Senator Kuipers is scheduled to visit and read to local elementary schools at the following locations:

- March 3, 2:30 p.m. – Central Elementary School in Sparta
- March 14, 9:30 a.m. – Eagle Crest Charter Academy in Holland
- March 14, 2:00 p.m. – Grandview Elementary in Grandville
- March 24, 11:15 a.m. – Coopersville Elementary West in Coopersville
- March 24, 1:00 p.m. – Maplewood Elementary in Jenison
- March 28, 1:00 p.m. – Robinson School in Grand Haven
